

North View, West Yorkshire

North View

North View is a residential care home in Todmorden, West Yorkshire. Here, we support up to six individuals with autism, learning disabilities, challenging behaviour, Down's syndrome and epilepsy, who may also need specialist behavioural support.

Our large, five-bedroom home benefits from a range of communal spaces, including a lounge, kitchen and spacious garden. We also have a separate annex with a self-contained flat - ideal for someone seeking greater independence.

We have great public transport links, giving us easy access to places further afield. The people we support are very active and love to get out into the community! We have lots of great amenities close by, such as supermarkets, local cafes, shops and sports centres.

North View is also surrounded by beautiful countryside, with some fantastic walking routes to be explored!

A place to call home

At North View, we're passionate about delivering person-centred care and support 24/7. To maintain up to date expert knowledge, our team regularly receive extensive training.

Our team encourage the people we support to engage in activities both in our home and out in the community. Our favourites include going swimming, visiting the gym, attending social clubs, pub trips, going to the cinema, gardening and volunteering!

We empower individuals to be as independent as possible by supporting them to develop valuable daily living skills.
