Chard Manor

Chard Manor is a residential care home in Somerset. Here, we support up to 10 individuals with learning disabilities, epilepsy, autism, challenging behaviour and mental health needs.

Our bedrooms are spread across two floors and our home provides sociable communal areas, including a lounge, activity lounge, conservatory and a spacious garden. All of our bedrooms have en-suite facilities - great for private personal care needs.

The people we support enjoy playing an active role in the local community, which offers various fun activities and days out, such as shopping, bowling, horse riding, circus shows and attending the Festival of Light at Longleat!

We are conveniently located near great public transport links, giving us easy access to local amenities, such as the town centre, health and leisure facilities, cycle routes and country walks.

A place to call home

At Chard Manor we're passionate about delivering person-centred care and support. To maintain up to date expert knowledge, our team receive extensive training on autism, epilepsy, and Makaton!

We empower the people we support to be as independent as possible by supporting them to develop daily living skills, while enjoying in-house activities such as discos, animal therapy sessions, movies, arts and crafts, puzzles and games.

In 2024, our home was nominated as care home team of the year at the Voyage Care Excellence awards, demonstrating the excellent care and support we deliver!

Quality care and support

We're committed to providing high-quality, person-centred care and support. Our goal is to help you live the fulfilling, meaningful and happy life you choose, with as much or as little support as you need.

Our highly trained, specialist teams work with you to co-create personalised support plans focusing on your interests, priorities and skills. You can rest assured your needs are at the centre of all we do.

*Data accurate as of November 2024.
